Introductory

HAVING decided not to issue a catalogue this year, we are sending this list of Bargains in dependable Fruits, Trees, Shrubs, and Bulbs, thus giving you the benefit of greatly reduced prices.

In making our list we are only listing the kinds that we have found by our experience do well in this vicinity. Therefore it will be easier for you to make your selections and feel sure of obtaining varieties that do well here.

We are on the Farmers Mutual telephone line, and all telephone orders will receive our prompt attention.

In comparing prices, remember ours are quoted DELIVERED, either postpaid, express paid, or to your door by auto truck. We deliver to neighboring towns and surrounding country with auto truck the same day plants are dug.

Our Guarantee—If any order is unsatisfactory, we will gladly make it right and any trees, shrubs, or plants, that do not grow the first season we will replace one-half price. We exercise care that all our bulbs and plants shall be true to name, and hold ourselves ready, upon proper proof, to refund money or replace that prove untrue. It is mutually agreed that we shall not be liable for a greater than the amount paid for the stock.

Senator Dunlap Strawberries in Our Young Orchard

Strawberries All varieties listed below are all perfect blooming and require no other kind for perfect fruiting. Can supply you with any standard variety. Write for prices on large orders. Plants are dug on day of shipment, from newly set patch.

Senator Dunlap—This berry has been very highly recommended since its introduction in 1900, and growers of it have not been disappointed. In all localities where it has been planted we hear nothing but praise for Senator Dunlap. It sends out many runners and should have plenty of room. The plant is perfectly healthy and an enormous bearer. It commences to ripen soon after the earliest and continues until near the close of the season. The fruit is large and conical in form; the color is a deep, rich red; flesh is also red and has a sprightly, delicious flavor.

Festiva Maxima

PEONIES

Of late years the peony is taking its rightful place as queen of all flowers, not even excepting the rose. Its great size, variety of form and color, its fragrance, and its freedom from insect pests, and, above all, its ease of culture, make it pre-eminently the favorite of those who grow flowers for pleasure and cannot devote much time to their care. Peonies may be planted any time after the middle of August until the ground freezes, and in the spring until growth has advanced too far.

We can furnish good, strong roots of either color, red, pink or white. They will be all good kinds and large double flowers. Price 75¢ each.

Single Peonies

Mikado—Dark, fiery crimson, narrow filamental petals, crimson-edged and tipped gold in center, tall, erect, strong grower; late mid-season. This is a prince among the single peonies.

Price $1.50.

Stanley—Very dark, brilliant crimson, tall, very erect and a free bloomer stems vivid red, early mid-season. This is really the most valuable peony in its class, because of its brilliant coloring, for landscape effects. Price 75¢.

White Japan—Very large, pure white petals; tall, strong grower and an extra free bloomer, with blooms in clusters of from three to five blooms, all open at the same time, spreading habit, mid-season; it has the exact

WHITE JAPANESE SINGLE PEONIES fragrance and appearance of a large water lily. Price $1.00.

CANNAS Assorted colors, $2.00 per doz.
